

Capt. Mark Sherman

*Commander, Higher Headquarters Company
15th Engineer Battalion*

Captain Sherman earned a Bachelor of Science in Psychology from the University of Idaho. He then attended U.S. Army Officer Commissioning School and was commissioned into the Corps of Engineers. After attending Engineer Officer Basic Course, he was assigned to the 116th Engineer Battalion as a Sapper platoon leader and immediately deployed to Iraq in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom III. He was later assigned to the “B” Company, 554th Engineer Battalion in Fort Leonard Wood Missouri, where he served as company executive officer. As a 1st Lieutenant, he then commanded “A” Company, 554th Engineer Battalion. After the Captain’s Career Course, he was assigned to 1st Heavy Brigade Combat Team at Camp Hovey, South Korea as a Brigade Engineer staff officer and battle captain. Captain Sherman was then assigned to 2-9 Combined Arms Battalion “Manchu” as the Battalion Engineer and Assistant Operations Officer.

Upon leaving Korea, Captain Sherman was assigned to HHC, 18th Engineer Brigade in Schweinfurt Germany as the Brigade Budget Officer. Immediately following his tenure as Budget Officer, he assumed command of “A” Company 18th Engineer Brigade.

Captain Sherman has completed one combat tour with 1-163 Infantry Task Force at FOB Mchenry Iraq.

Captain Sherman’s awards include: ARCOM(1OLC), AAM (1OLC), NAM, ARCAM, NAVE, GOUC, NDSM, KDSM, ICM, GWOTS, ASR, OSR, Combat Action Badge.